

Christ Is The Answer To Our Problems

No. 50

Introduction.

I. In recent years the hymn "He Is My Everything" has become very popular. It reads:

Some folks may ask me	some folks may say,	He is my everything, He is my all.
Who is this Jesus, you talk about every day,		He is my everything, both great and small.
He is my Savior, He set me free,		He gave His life for me,
Now listen while I tell you what He means to me.		Made everything new.

B. He is the all-sufficient Savior.

1. He took the beating we deserve because of sins. (Isa. 53:4-6; Matt. 26:28; 1 Cor. 15:3).

2. Now through obedience to Christ we can have our sins remitted and escape eternal punishment.

C. Not only is Christ the answer to our past sins, but He is the answer to our daily sins that we commit through weakness of the flesh. (1 Jn. 1:7, 9; 2:1-2).

1. The word "advocate" is an interesting word that corresponds to our word "attorney."

2. Jesus is our "attorney" with the Father. He asks God to forgive us because of what He has done for us on the cross and God remembering the suffering of His Son remits our sins.

II. Answer To What Our Mission In Life Should Be - Christ is the answer to what our mission in life should be.

A. There once was a politician who began each of his speeches with the same question: "Why are we here; why are we all here?"

B. The question of "Why are we all here?" is a very important one to all of us.

1. Modern man, in spite of his notable achievements and in spite of his numerous possessions, often wonders aimlessly through the world and lives a life devoid of real purpose and meaning. He
